Rated 4 out of 5 by ATXR from Beautiful, But not practical had this shirt in my cart but did not order it at the time. When I went to return it, the tags were missing. The managers checked with shipping and found the tags were on the shirt. This got returned to the managers after a call to our company. When I tried it on, I was very disappointed. The fit was poor, and it rode up in the front. Also, the colors were much more muted than what was on the picture. The colors are just not as vibrant as they seem in the picture.
